BUSINESS ITEMS

After a review of the bid documents and recommendation presented by Sage Diller of EHT engineering, Councilperson Spann made a motion to award the Construction Bid for the City of Eden 2015 TXCDBG Water Line Replacement Project #7215141 to Darnell Construction, LLC from San Angelo as the lowest qualified bidder, in the total amount of $121,252.60 to include the Base Bid and Additive Alt. A, seconded by Councilperson Gierisch, motion carried.

Councilperson Spann made a motion to approve a Livestock Permit to Alberta Trejo, Pecan Street, for the number of animals presented on the permit paperwork (10 Chickens & 4 Goats), seconded by Councilperson Ramirez, motion carried. Mrs. Trejo was in attendance at the meeting and stated that she had more animals now than when she had submitted her application, Council made it clear that she would need to reapply and complete the paperwork again. It was discussed that the livestock permitting process should be reviewed in the near future and should include the number of animals permissible based on lot/land size as well as remove the burden of permission from the neighbors of the applicant.

Councilperson Gierisch made a motion to approve the Juvenile Curfew Ordinance with amended language in "Curfew Hours" for hours 9:00 a.m. until 2:30 p.m on week days to include "while school is in session", seconded by Councilperson Ellison, motion carried.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
